

BOARD CHARTER HYPROP INVESTMENTS LIMITED

1. Introduction

The board of directors of Hyprop Investments Limited (“the Company”) acknowledges the need for a Board Charter as recommended in the Code of Governance Principles for South Africa - 2009 ("King III"). This Board Charter is subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the Company's Memorandum of Incorporation and any other applicable law or regulatory provision.

2. Purpose of the Board Charter

The purpose of this Charter is to set out the board’s role and responsibilities as well as the requirements for its composition and meeting procedures.

3. Composition

- 3.1. The board comprises a balance of executive and non-executive directors, with a majority of non-executive directors. A majority of the non-executive directors should be independent.
- 3.2. Directors are appointed through a formal process and the Remuneration and Nomination Committee assists in identifying suitable candidates to be proposed to the board and unitholders.
- 3.3. The Chief Executive Officer and the Financial Director are ex officio members of the board.
- 3.4. A formal induction programme exists for new directors. Where appropriate, inexperienced directors are developed through mentorship programmes.
- 3.5. Continuing professional development programmes are available to ensure that directors receive regular briefings on changes in relevant risks, laws and the environment.

4. Role and responsibilities

The role and responsibilities of the board are to:

- 4.1. Act as the focal point for, and custodian of, corporate governance by managing its relationship with management, shareholders and other stakeholders of the Company along sound corporate governance principles.

- 4.2. Appreciate that strategy, risk, performance and sustainability are inseparable and to give effect to this by:
 - 4.2.1. Contributing to and approving the strategy;
 - 4.2.2. Satisfying itself that the strategy and business plans do not give rise to risks that have not been thoroughly assessed by management;
 - 4.2.3. Identifying key performance and risk areas;
 - 4.2.4. Ensuring that the strategy will result in sustainable outcomes; and
 - 4.2.5. Considering sustainability as a business opportunity that guides strategy formulation.
- 4.3. Provide effective leadership on an ethical foundation.
- 4.4. Ensure that the Company is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen by having regard to not only the financial aspects of the business of the Company but also the impact that business operations have on the environment and the society within which it operates.
- 4.5. Ensure that the Company's ethics are managed effectively.
- 4.6. Ensure that the Company has an effective and independent Audit Committee.
- 4.7. Ensure that the Company has an effective system for identifying and managing relevant risks.
- 4.8. Be responsible for information technology (IT) governance.
- 4.9. Ensure that the Company complies with applicable laws and considers adherence to non-binding rules and standards.
- 4.10. Ensure that there is an effective risk-based internal audit, should the board deem that necessary
- 4.11. Appreciate that stakeholder's perceptions affect the Company's reputation.
- 4.12. Ensure the integrity of the Company's integrated report.
- 4.13. Act in the best interests of the Company by establishing systems designed to ensure that individual directors:
 - 4.13.1. adhere to legal standards of conduct;
 - 4.13.2. are permitted to take independent advice in connection with their duties following an agreed procedure;
 - 4.13.3. disclose real or perceived conflicts to the board and deal with them appropriately; and
 - 4.13.4. deal in securities only in accordance with the policy adopted by the board.
- 4.14. Commence business rescue proceedings as soon as the Company is financially distressed;
- 4.15. Elect a Chairman of the board that is an independent non-executive director.
- 4.16. Appoint and evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the Financial Director;

- 4.17. Ensure that its membership is appropriate in order for the board to carry out its duties effectively;
- 4.18. Ensure that the Company has an appropriate remuneration strategy in place.

The board should do everything necessary to fulfil its role set out above.

5. Delegation

- 5.1. The board delegates certain functions to well-structured committees but without abdicating its own responsibilities. Delegation is formal and involves the following:
 - 5.1.1. Formal terms of reference or charters are established and approved for each committee of the board.
 - 5.1.2. The committees' terms of reference are reviewed once a year.
 - 5.1.3. The committees are appropriately constituted with due regard to the skills required by each committee.
- 5.2. The board establishes a framework for the delegation of authority to management.

6. Meeting procedures

6.1. Frequency

- 6.1.1. The board must hold sufficient scheduled meetings to discharge all its duties as set out in this Charter but subject to a minimum of four meetings per year.
- 6.1.2. Meetings in addition to those scheduled may be held at the request of a board member.
- 6.1.3. The Chairman of the board may meet with the Chief Executive Officer and the Financial Director and/or the Company Secretary prior to a board meeting to discuss important issues and agree on the agenda.

6.2. Attendance

- 6.2.1. Members of senior management, assurance providers and professional advisors may be in attendance at meetings, but by invitation only and they may not vote.
- 6.2.2. Board members must attend all scheduled meetings of the board, including meetings called on an ad hoc basis for special matters, unless prior apology, with reasons, has been submitted to the chairman or company secretary.
- 6.2.3. The company secretary is the secretary to the board.
- 6.2.4. If the nominated chairman of the board is absent from a meeting, the members present must elect one of the members present to act as chairman.

6.3. Agenda and minutes

- 6.3.1. The board must establish an annual work plan for each year to ensure that all relevant matters are covered by the agendas of the meetings planned for the year.

The annual plan must ensure proper coverage of the matters laid out in this charter: the more critical matters will need to be attended to each year while other matters may be dealt with on a rotation basis over a three-year period. The number, timing and length of meetings, and the agendas are to be determined in accordance with the annual plan.

- 6.3.2. A detailed agenda, together with supporting documentation, must be circulated, in adequate time prior to each meeting to the members of the board and other invitees.
- 6.3.3. Board members must be fully prepared for board meetings to be able to provide appropriate and constructive input on matters for discussion.
- 6.3.4. The minutes must be completed as soon as possible after the meeting and circulated to the Chairman and members of the board for review thereof.
- 6.3.5. The minutes must be formally approved by the board at its next scheduled meeting.

6.4. Quorum

- 6.4.1. A representative quorum for meetings is a majority of directors.
- 6.4.2. Individuals in attendance at board meetings by invitation may participate in discussions but do not form part of the quorum for board meetings.

7. Evaluation

The evaluation of the board, its committees and individual directors, including the Chairman, must be performed annually.

8. Approval

This Charter was approved by the board and will be reviewed from time to time.
